Harbor Area Crippled Children Are Experiencing Camping Fun

Approximately 30 youngsters began a 2-week period of carefree activity and fun-filled hours on July 28, an experience to which they have been looking forward for many months. They are physically handicapped children of the Harbor Area, including the communities of Torrance, Harbor City, Lomita, Wilmington and San Pedro. Activities include singing, games and crafts, interspersed with rest periods, lunch and nutrition periods. Funds to pay for the milk and juice was provided again this year by the Wilmington Civitans. Mrs. Joyce Hansen, local chairman, explained that Day Camp for handicapped children could not succeed without the contributions and cooperation of the many individuals and groups involved.
